Our Judge for the 2024 Summer Show:

Takeyce Walter

Artist, Educator and Media Producer

Takeyce Walter is an award-winning contemporary American painter (Jamaican-born), art instructor, and media producer living and working in upstate New York. Since her formative years, the impulse to create has driven her, resulting in a lifelong journey of artistic expression. Takeyce's work is a testament to her deep-rooted connection with the Northeastern landscape, reflecting her profound contemplation of humanity's relationship with nature and the environment. Through the masterful manipulation of oil paint, gouache, and pastels, she crafts evocative portrayals of the natural world, capturing its essence in every stroke—be it the meandering rivers, the ethereal skies, or the tranquil lakes.

Beyond her artistic endeavors, Takeyce serves as a staunch advocate for both art and the environment, dedicating her time and expertise to local non-profit organizations championing these causes. In 2022, spurred by her volunteer work, Takeyce initiated a youth program titled, Art and the Environment in collaboration with The Nature Conservancy, Adirondack Chapter, and Black Dimensions in Art. Furthermore, in 2014, Takeyce launched "Creative February," a daily creative project that has since inspired artists worldwide to engage in daily art creation throughout the month.

Takeyce is represented by several regional galleries in upstate New York and her work has been acquired by numerous private collections across the United States and internationally, including these notable collections: The Adirondack Experience, Brookside Museum, Hudson Headwaters Health Network, and Saratoga Hospital Foundation.
